East Central London Written Public Input

1. Basically, I'm hoping any changes are done ASAP - the sooner kids can settle into their schools the better. Ideally avoid forcing kids to switch schools if possible.
2. I think that the new order change option for Aberdeen public school is a fantastic idea. It saves the kids from walking in dangerous areas and is a more manageable walk for young children.
3. [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] He will miss his school, teachers and friends. Trafalgar PS is at the same walking distance from our home as Aberdeen PS, both along Hamilton road, so it really does not lower any risk walking along Hamilton road in either case as suggested by the new boundaries between Trafalgar PS and Aberdeen PS.
